Kay McCluskey Welcomes Adrian Stone

Adrian said "I've been working on behalf of accident victims for 20 years and it's really exciting to join forces with such a respected firm. It's nice to feel optimistic in these difficult times!"

Kay McCluskey, head of Metcalfes' Personal Injury Department, said "it's great to welcome Adrian and his team. We've just had a great write-up in the legal 500 (an independent guide) and this will strengthen us even more".
